FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

FREE DUPONT-KALORAMA MUSEUM WALK WEEKEND

Saturday, June 3, and Sunday, June 4

11 a.m. – 4 p.m.

APRIL 10, 2017, Washington, D.C. – Stretch your legs and your mind during the 34th Annual Dupont Kalorama Museum Walk (June 3 and 4, 2017). Five diverse museums will open their doors free of charge for this weekend long celebration in one of Washington, D.C.'s most beautiful neighborhoods. Discover Anderson House, Dumbarton House, National Museum of American Jewish Military History, The Phillips Collection, and the President Woodrow Wilson House free of charge.

In addition to a wide variety of exhibitions, all sites are offering special programming. Celebrate the grand re-opening of Dumbarton House with a new exhibit and some yoga; hear stories from WWII veterans as well as genealogy tips at the National Museum of American Jewish Military History. Get creative with Jazz n' Family Fun Days at The Phillips Collection, make your own Remembrance Poppy at Wilson House and a tricorn hat or WWI overseas cap at Anderson House. And be sure to post your walk weekend photos on Instagram with the hashtag #walkdkmc – the best image submitted during the weekend wins a prize! Additional information on programming at individual sites is available below and at www.dkmuseums.com.

The Museum Walk event is held rain or shine. The National Museum of American Jewish Military History is open Sunday only. A list of walking directions, bus routes, and bike rack locations will be available at each site and on our website. [Editors, please note: NO shuttle service this year.]

2017 Walk Weekend Activities

Post your walk weekend photos on Instagram with the hashtag #walkdkmc – the best image submitted during the weekend wins a prize! (Participants must post the photos that weekend. We will select our favorite as the winner.)

Anderson House – The American Revolution Institute of the Society of the Cincinnati

2118 Massachusetts Ave., NW

202-785-2040 x421

www.societyofthecincinnati.org

Make your own Revolutionary War tricorne hat and World War I overseas cap to wear while exploring our exhibition The Great Crusade: World War I and the Legacy of the American Revolution.

Dumbarton House

2715 Q Street, NW

202-337-2288 x222

www.dumbartonhouse.org

Dumbarton House will celebrate its grand reopening after completing a major construction project this past winter. Visitors are invited to tour the newly reinterpreted museum and explore an exciting new exhibit, The Exchange featuring a rarely exhibited original printing of the Articles of Confederation (1777) and a 2nd edition of The Federalist [Papers] (1818). Visitors will look back at some of our nation's early debates around establishing a democratic republic and then be asked to reflect on current democratic principles of America. Enjoy light refreshments throughout the weekend and participate in the democratic process by sending postcards to their elected officials in support of an issue they care about. Continue the celebration on Sunday, with the seasonal kick off of Sunday Serenity Yoga at 10am in the tranquil East Park.

National Museum of American Jewish Military History

1811 R Street, NW

202-265-6280

www.nmajmh.org

SUNDAY ONLY: An expert from the Jewish Genealogical Society of Greater Washington will be here to answer your genealogy questions and Jewish War Veterans will be on hand to discuss their own experiences in the military.
